

Claire Mottart, your sentimental success partner for the Atoutcoeurs Belgium Agency.

I founded the Atoutcoeurs Agency several years ago to meet the ever-increasing demand of people wishing to build a serious, fulfilling, and harmonious relationship.

Our initial meeting with prospective members is essential to identify their personalities, discover their gray areas, and understand their expectations. Following up throughout the process is just as important.

People who come to us are shifting their focus away from random encounters because time passes quickly and they no longer want to waste their time in unsuitable relationships.

We help bring together profiles we believe are likely to match, even if we have no control over the chemistry between two beings or whether or not there will be a physical and emotional connection.

We do an amazing and meaningful job, and I feel a lot of gratitude in being able to accompany the members of Atoutcoeurs who, when they first join the Agency, reveal what is most precious and most vulnerable about themselves, and who trust us to help them achieve their romantic goals.
