

Michel Vanden Broucke, your sentimental success partner for the Atoutcoeurs Belgium Agency.

Thanks to my 30 years of experience in the restoration, I've developed a serious listening and kindness towards my clients.

The proximity and the sharing have often brought me on a path of beautiful encounters and confidence.

I contacted Claire Mottart, founder of the agency "Atoutcoeurs" and I immediately knew that I could find in her agency the seriousness I was looking for a long time.

I now start a new life where I will be able to help, advice, listen and share with men's and women's who've decided to bring an end to their loneliness by trusting us.

Come see us and let's have a talk, you'll not be disappointed.
