

Sabine Pasquier, partner of your sentimental success for the Atoutcoeurs Agency.

Coming from the field of communication, I have always been interested in the human being and his emotions.

Equipped with kindness, I have the habit of listening to others, dialoguing and making sure they are happy. To share thoughts with them, to in turn, make them fulfilled is a priority for me. I have joined Claire Mottart, founder of the Atoutcoeurs agency, a few years ago.

To work within this serious Agency has allowed me to meet wonderful people, to hear stories of life and finally, to give them keys, opportunities to meet so they can reach happiness.

Today, more than ever, life is better when shared. Loneliness is not a fatality, act on it!
